

Museums and Restitution

International Conference
University of Manchester, 8-9 July 2010

Book Now!

Museums and Restitution is a two-day international conference examining the issue of restitution in relation to the changing role and authority of the museum, focusing on new ways in which these institutions are addressing the subject. It will bring together museum professionals and academics from a wide range of fields (including museology, archaeology, anthropology, art history and cultural policy) to share ideas on contemporary approaches to restitution from the viewpoint of museums.

Venue: Manchester Museum

Panel topics

- Power, politics, authority
- Local and national power relations
- Reflections on returns
- Digital, visual and knowledge repatriation
- Second World War spoliation
- The Parthenon Marbles
- Africa and India
- North America

Standard Registration Fee: £100 (£50 per day)

Student Registration Fee: £50 (£25 per day)
