

Keith Ford
Senior Lecturer
Nursing, Midwifery and Health
Email: KEITH.FORD@NORTHUMBRIA.AC.UK

Qualifications

Social Work, PhD
25 Feb 2016 → 31 Dec 2099
Award Date: 25 Feb 2016

Nursing, MSc
12 Apr 2010 → 31 Dec 2099
Award Date: 12 Apr 2010

1 Sep 2017 → 31 Aug 2018 Information not provided, Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC)

Employment

Senior Lecturer

Nursing, Midwifery and Health
Northumbria University
1 Aug 2018 → present

Research outputs

Mental health: Working with people who hear voices

Ford, K. & Watson, F., 4 Nov 2019, In: British Journal of Nursing. 28, 19, p. 1142-1144 3 p.

A social construction of remission for people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia

Ford, K., 9 Apr 2018, In: Mental Health and Social Inclusion. 22, 2, p. 94-107 14 p.

Recovery from schizophrenia: Developing context utilising the literature

Ford, K., 3 Aug 2016, In: Mental Health and Social Inclusion. 20, 3, p. 187-196

'Daring to peek over the wall': A qualitative exploration of the concept of remission in the process of recovery for people with schizophrenia

Ford, K., Dec 2015, (Accepted/In press)

The concept of remission for people with schizophrenia

Ford, K., Feb 2010, In: Mental Health Practice. 13, 5, p. 22-25

Resolution and remission in schizophrenia: getting well and staying well

Yeomans, D., Taylor, M., Currie, A., Whale, R., Ford, K., Fear, C., Hynes, J., Sullivan, G., Moore, B. & Burns, T., 2010, In: Advances in Psychiatric Treatment. 16, 2, p. 86-95

Managing schizophrenia in primary care: The utility of remission criteria as outcome indicators

Fear, C., Yeomans, D., Moore, B., Taylor, M., Ford, K., Currie, A., Hynes, J., Sullivan, G., Whale, R. & Burns, T., 2009, In: Mental Health in Family Medicine.. 6, 2, p. 107-112